

MERCERS

Solicitors

Why Choose Us

- Not all solicitors firms are the same
- Unlike many other firms, at Mercers virtually all legal work is carried out by experienced qualified solicitors who pride themselves on giving you a personal service
- Why take the risk that a matter which may be very important to you will be handled by an inexperienced unqualified person. We take the view that “you don’t know what you don’t know”. At Mercers you can rest assured that the person representing your interests will “know” and will protect those interests
- Several partners and fee earners have worked at large City of London firms before joining Mercers, giving you City expertise at regional prices
- Mercers has ISO 9001 accreditation and is independently quality assessed every six months to maintain that accreditation. “Our badge of quality gives you peace of mind”
- In client surveys 95% of clients say that they would instruct Mercers again and would recommend Mercers to friends, family and business associates (see testimonials below)
- Mercers has the benefit of a breadth of professional indemnity insurance cover which far exceeds the Minimum Terms Cover required by the Solicitors Regulation Authority, giving our clients extensive protection

See what clients have said about their experience working with our litigators:

“Four solicitors thought our case was a lost cause, and it was only Mercers that were willing to take it on. It was explained to us from the outset the difficulties that might arise and they fully explained why the case would be difficult. But ‘there is always more than one way to skin a cat’.

And Beatrice found it and won our case for us. Can't recommend them enough. We are still over the moon!" – Mr & Mrs P, Leicester
